Pallas Partners Announces Initial Client Assignments

May 19, 2008 – Pallas Partners Inc. is pleased to announce that it has been retained by a number of clients to provide capital structuring and strategic planning solutions. The initial client roster includes a diverse group of industries with a common theme, the desire to take the company to the next level. Industries represented include Real Estate, Equestrian, Technology, and Food Processing/Manufacturing.

Clients retaining Pallas on a long-term basis include CinTel Corp, Betsy Webb Stables, Greenberg Development Corporation, and Koochiching Freshwater Fisheries. Assignments include assisting CinTel Corp, an Incredible Award winning company and GLI High Impact Portfolio member; develop a strategic plan for acquisition and expansion. "We have found Matt's knowledge in the industry and expertise in the financial sector to be a huge benefit to our company while interacting with all levels of the finance services industry", said JD Sparks, EVP of CinTel Corp. Betsy Webb Stables has retained Pallas to develop a strategic business and capital acquisition plan that can facilitate and support its new $3.5 million property in Louisville. Koochiching Freshwater Fisheries based in International Falls, MN has retained Pallas Partners to recapitalize the corporation and develop its business plan for a series of planned fish processing plants.

Pallas Partners Managing Director and CEO, Matthew Saltzman, stated, "Our initial client assignments demonstrate the critical need for a firm such as ours. We are able to help good business people who need contacts, strategic planning and financial structuring in order to take their businesses to the next level. As our depth of experience in our Affiliate Consultants continues to expand, our ability to provide incredibly valuable assistance to our clients increases in direct proportion. Given the current uncertainty in the economy the obvious need to reach outside for solutions becomes more apparent to our potential client base." Saltzman further stated, "We are extraordinarily pleased with the traction that Pallas has received and the confidence that our clients have placed in us. We believe the results our clients will achieve in the long-term more than validates the investment they have made in themselves by retaining our firm."
